

Red maple

Description: Abundant & widespread tree throughout eastern North America. The leaves turn a brilliant red in autumn prior to falling. Spring buds are a favorite food of tree squirrels.

Family: Sapindaceae

Scientific name: Acer rubrum

For more information on our SEEP plants, please visit <http://natl.ifas.ufl.edu/>