PROJECT INFORMATION SHEET

University: University of Florida

Site Name: Main Campus
(Main Campus, Branch Name, etc.)

Project Name: Environmental Stewardship

BOR Project No.: (if assigned) N/A

Project Description:

(Should include the name of the building, work to be accomplished, whether the project is remodeling, renovation, expansion or site improvement as well as the programs or activities to benefit from the project)

The University is actively involved in promoting environmental stewardship through development of a strong Conservation Area Land Management Plan. Several initiatives have been identified and are included in the scope of the proposed project. Those initiatives include;

- Uniform campus wide signage to increase public awareness and stewardship of natural features such as creeks and wetlands
- The installation of attractive fencing along all conservation areas adjacent to roads for the purpose of discouraging trespass and trapping trash that blows from the roadway into the natural areas. Also included is boundary fencing to establish the limits of Conservation Areas and identify certain management practices such as no parking and no mowing
- Information Kiosks installed in all natural areas. Some areas currently have information kiosks, but a significant number remain to be installed. This will also be beneficial towards increasing public awareness and stewardship as well as provide general information of the identified areas
- Expanded natural area teaching resources and facilities
