

Bald Cypress

Description: these iconic symbols of southern swamps can reach 130 ft & live up to 600 years and are distinctive for their buttressed bases & 'knees'; leaves are borne on deciduous branchlets

Family: Cupressaceae

Scientific name:

Taxodium distichum

For more information about NATL plants, visit <http://natl.ifas.ufl.edu/biota/plants.php>