

Common Ragweed

Description: native annual; distinguished by its deeply and intricately divided leaves; being a common weed in agricultural fields, it quickly becomes abundant during the early stages of old field succession

Family: Asteraceae

Scientific name:

Ambrosia artemisiifolia

For more information about NATL plants, visit <http://natl.ifas.ufl.edu/plants.htm>