

Swamp Flatsedge

Description: a common wetland sedge found throughout peninsular Florida; topped with distinctive clusters of spikelets; its strong stems are used to make hats and mats.

Family: Cyperaceae

Scientific name:
Cyperus distinctus

For more information about NATL plants, visit <http://natl.ifas.ufl.edu/plants.htm>