

Carolina Frostweed

Description: native; flowers with 5 bright yellow petals; found in well-drained, sunny habitats from Texas to N. Florida through North Carolina

Family: Cistaceae

Scientific name:

Helianthemum carolinianum

For more information about NATL plants, visit <http://natl.ifas.ufl.edu/plants.htm>