

Soft Needle Rush

Description: a densely clumped, grass-like perennial that forms extensive colonies in wet soils; tiny seeds are dispersed by clinging to the feathers or muddy feet of ducks & other wetland birds.

Family: Juncaceae

Scientific name:
Juncus effusus

For more information about NATL plants, visit <http://natl.ifas.ufl.edu/plants.htm>