

Sweetgum

Description: easily identified by its star-shaped leaves that are aromatic when crushed and its woody, burr-like, spherical fruit; seeds from the fruit are dispersed by birds and other wildlife that feed on them.

Family: Altingiaceae

Scientific name:

Liquidambar styraciflua

For more information about NATL plants, visit <http://natl.ifas.ufl.edu/plants.htm>