

American Pokeweed

Description: a native herb with bright red stems; has small white flowers; cooked young shoots are said to taste like asparagus; berries are poisonous, but were used to make crimson dye.

Family: Phytolaccaceae

Scientific name:

Phytolacca americana

For more information about NATL plants, visit <http://natl.ifas.ufl.edu/plants.htm>