

American Pokeweed

Description: native perennial herb; in winter, foliage is frost sensitive but mature, purple berries persist; berries are a food source for birds and other wildlife, but toxic to humans

Family: Phytolaccaceae

Scientific name:

Phytolacca americana

For more information about NATL plants, visit <http://natl.ifas.ufl.edu/plants.htm>