

Florida Dandelion

Description: native; flower usually closes by midday; a small bee (Hemihalicus lustrans) depends on it and is evidently its only pollinator; tiny, wind dispersed seeds

Family: Asteraceae

Scientific name:
Pyrrhopappus carolinianus

For more information about NATL plants, visit <http://natl.ifas.ufl.edu/plants.htm>