

Curly Dock

Description: perennial; native to Eurasia; erect fruiting stalks dark-red when mature; often abundant in old fields and other disturbed areas; name refers to curled edges of leaves

Family: Polygonaceae

Scientific name:
Rumex crispus

For more information about NATL plants, visit <http://natl.ifas.ufl.edu/plants.htm>