

White Clover

Description: non-native; widely introduced as a pasture crop; leaves arranged in shape of the 'shamrock' ; easily distinguished from the similar Field Clover by its large, white flowers

Family: Fabaceae

Scientific name:
Trifolium repens

For more information about NATL plants, visit <http://natl.ifas.ufl.edu/plants.htm>